

May 12, 1864

After a furious battle at the salient — the so-called "Bloody Angle" — there was a lull, owing principally to the heavy and constant rains which made the roads deep with mud and impassable.
Again & again Grant hurled his men against Lee in chosen & fortified positions.

May 15, 1864

Battle at New Market, Virginia

May 13, 1864

Battle of RE SACA, Georgia as Sherman heads toward Atlanta .

1864

1912 Dates J-BK

(1806-1871) OHAR PASHA

A Turkish general. Born in Croatia. His real name was MICHAEL LATTA. Governor of Lebanon (1842). Defeated the Russians at OLTEVITZA (1853) and at SILISTRIA (1854). With an army of 60,000 men, repulsed the Russians who with 40,000 men attacked him at EUPATORIA. His attempt to relieve KARS failed. Became governor of Bagdad (1857). Banned for 2 years (1859-1861). On his return he repressed the uprising in MONTENEGRO and took CETINJE (1862). Made field marshal (1864). Failed to put down the rebellion in Crete. Made minister of War (1869)

1864

1912 Dates J-BK

(1806-1869) William Pitt FESSENDEN

American statesman. Born in BOSCAWEN, N.H.

Elected U.S. Senator (1854). opposed the Kansas-Nebraska Bill. See of treasury

(1864) during the blackest financial period in the history of the country. Gold was at 280. A paper dollar was worth

34¢ and the government had just withdrawn a loan from the market which it could not float. Fessenden ssued the "seven-thirty" bonds. Gold fell to 199 and Fessenden went back to the Senate. He voted in favor of Johnson's acquittal on his impeachment. He was one of the leaders in the Senate during the early Reconstruction Period.

1864

1912 Dates J-BK

(1821-1875) John Cabell BRECKINRIDGE
Vice Pres of the U.S. when James Buchanan was Pres (1856-1860). Born near Lexington, Ky. From 1851 to 1855 he occupied a seat in Congress. In 1860
he ran for presidency against Lincoln.
In 1861 he was in the national Senate Served in the Confederate Army through the War. Second in command under EARLY at Shenandoah (1864). Sec.

of war in the cabinet of Jefferson Davis (Jan 1865 - Apr 1865). Escaped to Europe.

Returned in 1868 and practised law.

Feb. 20, 1864

1912 Dates J-BK

OLUSTEE

An expedition of land and naval forces under General Seymour was sent with Florida from Pnd Royal. On Feb. 7, they reached Jacksonville and started inland. On the 20th they met the Confederates at Olustee, and were defeated and obliged to retreat to BARBERS with a loss of 1,861

men & 5 pds of artillery

July 20, 1864

1912 Dates J-BK

PEACH TREE CREEK

While the Federals were getting their troops in position before ATLANTA, Ga. they were attacked by the Confederates under Hood, at Peach Tree Creek. After a sharp contest the Confederates were forced to retreat to their intrenchments with the loss of about 3,000 men. The loss to the Federal Army was 2,200.

1864

1912 Dates. J-BK

(1823-1901) LI HUH (HAN)

Chinese statesman. Born in Lee-chow, Nyan-hwei. He was a friend to Western civilization and culture. With the help of GOR DOW he put down the TAIPING rebellion (1864). He became governor of the KIANG provinces (1864) and from 1870 to 1895 was viceroy of the province of CHI-LI. The foreign policy of China during this period was under Li's Control. He recognized the Army, was obliged to bear the burden of defeat

in the war with Japan and afterward negotiated the Treaty of Peace.

In 896 he began a tour of the world,
was everywhere enthusiastically received and on his return was soon reinstated to his former government position.

1864

1912 Dates J-BK

(1816-1894) Nathaniel Prentiss BANKS
An American soldier and legislator; born in Waltham, Mass. He began his career as a factory worker, and from that his nickname of the "bobbin boy" clung to him all his life.
He studied law and became a member of the state and then the national legislature. In 1856 he was speaker of the House and was made governor of Massachusetts in 1857. He was in the army in the Civil War, first on the POTOMAC, then at New Orleans, then at Red River. In 1868 he re-entered Congress where he remained until 1890. In 1891 he was granted by Congress a pension of $1,200 Annually.

1864

(1819-1898) William Starke ROSECRANS Eminent American soldier. Born at Kingsboro, Ohio held several. Held several commands in the Civil War and was almost uniformly successful until his defeat at CHICKAMAUGA by Bragg.

Was married to Mexico (1868)

Elected to Congress (1880 and 1882)

May 7-19, 1864

Spotsylvania Campaign
Lee & Grant's campaign of maneuvering
Wilderness
Cold Harbor
New Market

1864

1912 Dates J-BK

PETERSBURG

During the Civil War, while General Butler was conducting operations against Richmond, he sent Gillmore and KAUTZ with a detachment of Federals against Petersburg. An attempt to enter the town was made on June 10, but the Federals were repulsed on June 15, the Federal led by W. F. Smith again attacked Petersburg.

At the end of 4 days of skirmishing the Federals were obliged to give up the attempt, having lost 9, or men in the engagements.

During June & July the Federals remained in the vicinity of Petersburg and skirmishing was almost incessant.

A powder mine made under the Confederate defenses was exploded on July 30 and many Confederates were killed but the Federal attack which followed was a failure and 4, 000 Federals were lost.

Nov. 14 - Dec 10, 1864

Sherman's March

Union Army under Gen. William T. Sherman burned Atlanta, Ga. and marched to Savannah, devastating the countryside - cutting the South in half.